

of it.

(Oh plenty of meat, not much money.)

Wouldn't know where to spend it. I don't know what we'd do with it.

(That's right. Didn't have any need for money.)

Didn't have a need for money.

(No, that's right you wouldn't have.)

Seem funny though not having money.

(Yeah.)

'Course they didn't have any use for it.

SPEAKING OF GOLD COINS

(Yeah, I guess what little money they had would be either probably be coin, that is silver and gold.)

Yeah.

(In those days. You know I don't think I've ever seen a gold coin.

I've heard people talk about 'em.)

I've seen 'em.

(You have?)

Yeah.

(Well.)

I remember when they was circulation. But very few have saw the gold coin. Now there used to be lots of the paper

(Yeah.)

Call paper money. Gold certificates. Used to be--used to look at it under (not clear) gold certificates. Ten dollars and twenty dollars.

Third male voice: Twenty dollar gold piece.

Twenty dollar gold piece about the size of a silver dollar. Then a ten dollar gold piece about like a quarter. Five dollar gold piece about like a nickel. They had a two and a half gold piece. It was about as