

Well, yes. He was really dolled up in the latest.

(That's right. He's a fine looking fella too.)

Yeah, he was nice looking.

(Another good looking one too.)

That's (name not clear)

Yes sir, that's--)

I should have some more old pictures. You want to look at them? See if I can find it. That's taken long ago too. That's one of my uncles.

Here's an old timer. That's when I was a little bitty kid. Bear huntin in Oregon. I knew both those.

(Well, Bear huntin' in Oregon.)

And they got the bears too.

(They sure have. They got three of 'em there.)

Yes sir.

(Well.)

Both of these are real old.

OLD PHOTOGRAPHS INDICATE STYLE OF DRESS

(Yeah, you can tell that they're old from the dress of the people there.)

This man's name is Hale. Well, he married my first cousin. This one was Oscar Spreckle. That was his name. I got some old ones. Now here's a part of the White Oak river.

(Yes ma'am.)

Right here. But this picture I was telling you about is taken way back there.

(Now let's see. This one and--)

That's in Arkansas.

(Arkansas.)
