

I don't the Caddo. Caddo school. But I don't know about the one you're speaking of.

(It probably is. You know schools pretty plentiful then.

(Yeah. Scattered all around.)

Pretty hard way to, you know, any distance.

CHELSEA AND VINITA - CATALE

(And have you heard - was Vinita the closest trading center outside of what you had next to White Oak, I guess? Then the next place would be Chelsea.)

No, Catale.

(Catale.)

Catale. Now see big coal strip mining was going on. When it played out why Catale cleared out.

There might be an old building or two there. I been aiming to go down there and just look. Oh, it plants had a lot of work, you know.

(Well, it must have.)

It was quite a little town. But played out. It was a circuit (not clear).

(tape skip) There's Greer school house north of Catale belong to McKinley.

(Well.)

Its kinda nice rest. I know there's more, but you know why I can't talk.

Now over here. You know where Harry Morgan's house is?

(Yes ma'am.)

Well, right over there you see the Glen Dale schoolhouse.

(The what?)

Glen Dale.

(Glen Dale.)

(Words not clear - tape too fast.) That's been gone for years.
