

I liked it too, but that's over now. (laughs)

(When do you say you was born?)

March 25, 1903.

(Well, sounds like you had happy days when you was young.)

Yes. Went to church all night service, lots of food. I go now too, but it's not like it used to be. Long time ago, christians used to get happy, clap hands. Now all we hear is English songs. (laughter) We didn't have piano them days. They sang and gave encouragements on fasting days too. We took lunch and ate together, but now it's not that way.

(End of interview.)
