

Speak of that quite often. That's the one thing that they miss. Now they tell me that in the older days of their time, that the senior citizens, they received a high position in the family and community. They weren't sent off to hospitals and rest homes. Why the family wouldn't stand for it. They kept their old people right with them. Now that's something else that has changed.)

Yeah, as soon as they get old they send 'em off to a rest home.

(That's right. "course there's an answer for these things. I hate to remind myself what it is but it's just one of the changing ways of our society, I guess. That's the only thing I can determine.)

Yeah, then as soon as people got old they just stayed with some of 'em, you know, the children the rest of their lives.

LOCAL CEMETERIES AND HISTORY OF THEM

(What is the history of your cemetery up here? Is that White Oak cemetery?)

White Oak?

(Uh-huh. Have any idea when or who established it?)

No, I sure don't.

(It's been there a long time though hasn't it?)

Yeah, it's been there for years. I suppose it would be, I believe,

Ballards and Cornells or some of them, you know.

(Were the Lundsford--were they Indian or white?)

Who?

(Lundford?)

I didn't know them.

(I know there's quite a few of those buried there at the White Oak.

And the Turners.)
