

(I guess not)

I was going to that church at night.

(Uh-huh)

That boy he just got to (not clear). That building is supposed to be pastor's home, you know.

(Well, they tell me, old folks that McLain cemetery first time they called in Conseen.)

Conseen, yeah.

(Yeah, cemetery.)

They changed the name to McLain.

(Well, that was long time ago then.)

Conseen is an old, you know, where you (not clear) on that grave.

(Yeah, 1870)

1870. Yeah, they called it when I first moved down here (not clear)

Conseen then.

(Yeah. Yeah, that was old Indian family, Conseens.)

Conseens. They lived right there, over there somewhere.

(Yeah)

I seen where the man, I guess, he died. You know, he-

(Yeah)

20 years (not clear). What they call in the army you stay in 20 years,

I think, you're retired.

(Yeah, they get retired.)

Yeah, that's what he done. He retired. He didn't live long after he retired. I seen that man. I knowed him. I was wanting to buy 20 acres of that back in--ask him one time if he'd sell it. What do you think
