

all except Jenny, all buried there. Besides them, Jenny and Papa, they're separate from the others because there wasn't enough room. Then they said there was enough room for Mamma but I told them to go ahead and put Mama there by the children and then they had room.

NAMES OF PEOPLE IN EARLY DAYS - TIAWAH

(Did you ever hear anyone in your travels and field work mention where the homes of the Cherokee chiefs were? I haven't been--I've found out a few of them but this John Ross was at Tahlequah and J.W.---J.D. Milana was Chelsea but now the rest of them, I wish they had more--) Tahlequah.

(Tahlequah.)

Yeah. Cause Mama knew all of them and she said he was a big fellow but he was there at Tahlequah and he had two (not clear) in his house. As it was with her folks, years and years ago.

(Yeah, Now let's see, Buffington was in Vinita.)

Yeah. They were kin to my daddy, them Buffington's were--

(Now--Charles Thompson, the one whose Indian name was Ochelata. Now I wonder where his home was.)

Let's see.

(And let's see, Louis Downing is another one that--)

I believe I heard my folks talking--that-- isn't there a Downing Springs?

(Yes there is somewhere.)

I believe it is in Delaware County, now I could be wrong, but I'm sure that is where his home was--Let's see, I believe Downing Springs is-- I just couldn't say but I have been places in Delaware County and I don't-- Let's see, I can't think of his first name, and he was an awful good friend of our family. And he was half-way seems to me like--do you know a--
