

But I don't remember much about him. Don't know where they come from.

He used to be out there at that convention every summer.

(Well do you--you've been around that little place called Lost City, I guess.)

Oh yeah, it's right over here north of Tahlequah.

(Yeah that's--)

West of Mulberry.

(There's been lot of Indians lived around that place. Keeners.)

Keener. Keeners is my relation.

(Well.)

ONE RELATION WAS A LAWMAN

And there are Houstons. Used to be some Houstons in there at Myers Lake too. Isaac Houston, he was the one that killed them three men over there once, you know.

(Well.)

We's second cousins to that boy.

(Well, that's one story I didn't hear about.)

Yeah, he killed a feller name of Hardesty and Lawhead, I believe and a fella name of Mays.

(Well.)

Killed all three of 'em. I believe he killed all three of 'em at once.

Isaac Houston. He was a law officer. His daughter lives down at El Reno.

(Yeah.)

(tape skip)

(Well.)

Have you ever got any contact with him?

(No. What's the name of it?)
