

you get home."

(Hum, that made a lot of difference, didn't it?)

Yes, it did.

(Made believers out of some of them.) (Laughter)

I know it.

(Yes, sir, you know, maybe, we should have something like that now.)

Well, it would sure help.

(I believe it would help if we---

But I'll tell you what we should do. You get some real good teachers for first grade. Teacher punish a kid and they get the parents against them.

(Yeah, yes, sir, they've got the whole town right against them, haven't they?

And that don't help the kid though.)

No.

(I just don't believe it does.)

That's the trouble with schools today.

(End of Interview)