

Bill. Have you got a Muskogee calendar now?

Mrs. Yeah, I got a Muskogee calendar.

Bill. Well, it will show it on there.

Mrs. I don't--well I don't know where--I know its in there in a drawer someplace. Yeah, I've got a Muskogee county map.

Bill. It should show it in there.

Mrs. I'll find it. I'll find that map of--when it--

(It would be interesting to see one.)

The way the nations were divided up and I think its in color, each one different. We've got all kinds of books on the history of this part of the state. Because Bill's interested in history, Oklahoma history, and I am too. And I've got--he has that book that Foreman "History of Oklahoma." But, I thought there was some more maps in there. But there's not as many as I thought there was.

OLD TIMERS IN THE AREA

(That Lowrey family we were talking about. Were they old settlers in that area?)

Bill. Now I know (static--words not clear) Dorothy's mother. She was a Lowrey.

Mrs. She was a Lowrey.

Bill. And then uncles--

(Well.)

Mrs. Well, Bill grew up with those Lowreys. (words not clear.) Well doesn't--she live with Dorothy, doesn't she?

Bill. She did until Dorothy married again. Now I don't know whether she does or not. The only way I could find out and if she could talke to you--

Mrs. She was old as your mother.
