

nobody never hardly comes to see him. But he does go to church and he goes around and try to find something to do for his living, besides his old age pension. So this is all I have to say for Siah Polk. He is a Creek Indian, living in Eufaula, Oklahoma. And he is 70 years old. Full blood. A while ago, I said he was an orphan, but he's really not. He wasn't an orphan, his father and his mother just didn't live together and it was just about the same as being an orphan boy as he was growing up, because he only had his mother to live with and sometimes he'd go see his father and then he had a grandfather. Sometimes he'd go by and see him, but it wasn't like a home with both parents living together. So that's the way it was, but he lost both his father and mother when he was just a young boy about 11. So that made him an orphan after he lost his parents. I thought I had better correct that.
