

(What is his name, by the way?)

Carl--Carl (name not clear.)

(That store there at (static)--at uh--Gideon uh--)

Yeah.

(Has he always been in that country?)

Yeah ever since I've been out here I've, no--he lived in Texas a while.

THERE HAS ALWAYS BEEN A STORE AT GIDEON

(Yeah. There's been a store at Gideon a long time--)

There's been a store there--ever--I came her in 1918 and there been a store that long--

(Yeah.)

It was here when I come.

(Yeah. Well, I remember my grandparents they used to live up on the creek there and they said there was a store there then, and that was way before 1900's.)

Oh - yeah there was a store up there when I come here--

(But I don't know who run this store--)

No, I don't know either.

(In those early days--)

I don't know--I just don't know who run it, yet--

(I've heard them say that there were a lot of people that live down in that country there--)

Yeah there was. You can find out though when you see them folks around Gideon. I thought uh--that guy Jim might--not Jim but you know, that George Houston might knowed. I didn't know if he would or not.

(Well, he probably did and I probably didn't get to ask him--we got to talking about other things)

I didn't know cause they lived there not too far from them--and
