

MORE ABOUT BURIED TREASURE

(No in those early days there must have been a lot of things happened that no one will ever know about.)

No they'll never know, huh-uh. Yeah, they said was two mule loads of money---

(Well)

In bags, filled full with silver money. I heard George tell it lots of times he said "I wore my fingernails out hunting for it and I never got it." It's been lots of people hunting for it, but they never have been able to find it. (static--words not clear) One night we went, me and old lady Wilson, we went with Sam and Levi. I helped just a little (words not clear). We went out and they dug a big hole, you know, and we dug along that same river and uh--they found a knife, and a fork, and a spoon. That thing worked it was silver. Laughter.

(Good.)

They thought, well--we surely find the money (not clear) if we dug a little deeper.

(Hm.)

There's been lots of--

(I guess there's places all through this country where things were buried in the early days.)

Yeah.

(I remember--)

They never did know where it was at, though.

(Yeah.)

They sure did talk about it.

(Yeah.)
