

(White corn?)

(Creek sentences.)

(Can you think of anything else?)

(Creek sentence.)

(Did you like it back in those days?)

(Creek words.) Yes.

(They didn't have any nursing homes in those days did they?)

No.

(Do you have kin folks living around here?)

Yes. (Explanation in Creek.)

(Well it is about over. More sentences in Creek.)

(More Creek)

(I want to thank you for talkin to me.)

(Sentences in Creek)

(Why that was all right.)

(Creek conversation.)

(And I'll keep it.)

(I interviewed Charlie Bruner and he is a minister. January 31, 1970. He is in a nursing home. The noise we hear out in the hall are the relatives of patients here. Charlie is very tired now so he just talked on one side of the tape but he enjoyed talking to me. At his age he can hardly remember some things, back in his young days. I am going to interpret this recording on side B. So I'll turn this tape over and I'll try to do the best I can to interpret what Charlie Bruner said.)

(End of Side A.)

(I have interviewed Charlie Bruner. He lives in a nursing Home in Eufaula, Oklahoma. He is Creek Indian and he was born in Wagoner County. He is hard
