

it. Save all the scraps and don't destroy them. Just put it up and bundle it up and tie it to a tree, especially by a creek or by a river.

(If somebody makes a dress, is that like good luck?)

Yea. Now like that cloth, we make a dress for one of the girls, she go ahead do it make a dress out of it, But I don't know how about those scraps like I got here. Well I just thought I tell you, you's talking about that bundle. When Johnson mother had it, it came from way back, from Old Man Blackbear, and when she got that medicine that bundle, and she passed on they don't know who to get hold of it. Now Ray, he's supposed to from the beginning, In place that he got Laura, or Winnter or Johnson, they had a right. Instead of that, that Laura took care of it. She's dead now. That was Johnson's sister. And they was living down here by this peanut plant. Well, when she passed away that was Jim Quetone who was living there. Well it was in that house all that time and nobody seemed to care about it you know. Finally I don't know how they give back to Ray. Ray want Johnson to take care of it. Johnson say, I don't have a home of my own to live in. I come get it if I had a home of my own. I don't mind get it. Therefore, Ray, he's got a home. He's got more right. It was his grandpa's that's where it came from. So Ray, he got hold of it. He had it. Then I heard you got hold of it. That's the story I heard. (So that bundle should now belong to Johnson?)

Yea. Ray main guy supposed to have it, but then Johnson.

(What do you think is going to happen to all of these bundles when the people who have them are gone?)

I don't know what's going to happen, the future. Just like I said the Kiowas Old James Silverhorn, I don't know how many he's got. And some of the others, I don't know where they at. Oliver Tenadoah, he's got three.
