

bad too. Ice on the ground. And they took me to the hospital. My brother went on home. Frances had to go out there and get him. She met him coming there by that store. She was really going. But he stopped, and wanted to know what was the matter. She turned around and come back. Said, "Daddy, don't stop at the house. Go to the hospital. Mama put Aunt Tillie this morning. She had light attack, and she ain't out of it yet". He just went right on down to the hospital. I didn't know till way late in the evening. Him and Viola was sitting there and he got up. Seen me move, I guess. He got up. (Osage name) I said, what? Don't talk. Now they don't want you to say nothing. She stayed there till midnight that night. He told woman to stay there till he got back. Him and Hattie stayed there. And the rest of the night well they kids-- And then the following year. I had another one. Every time its bad I get sick. Both times when that happened, I said I'm through with it, I said. They were going to take me in the wagon, or sled or something to bury me. I don't want to be in that hearse twice. They took me in the hearse both times. I done rode in a hearse I said. When my time comes they could take me in a wagon if they want to, I said. Its bad. I been--ever since. That's been about 7--6--7 years ago now. Five or six years ago anyway. Doctor James saved me.

Mr. Maker: Mrs. Walker. Mrs. Walker just came back--

Mrs. Green: Huh?

Mr. Maker: Mrs. Walker--Josephine just came back from Rochester, Minn., you know. She said everything they found out about her was all right. So I guess she is all right, you know.

Mrs. Green: Walker.

Mr. Maker: Yeah. Josephine--Mrs. Walker. Oh, that's good. I went to clinic too. I been there first time, and I didn't believe'em. And I went up there to Kansas City. He told me the same thing. Card--I went to start with one card. (Osage name) when I come out that was that thick of cards, about that wide. He told all about it. What they found. Only thing they found. It was my pressure. I had low pressure and nerves. And he asked me over and over, if I ever been in a car wreck or anybody hurt my feelings. And I said, no. I drove cars, but I
