

are too full. If you don't see anyone, all you have to do is go to the clinic and you can see all the people that you want to see. These doctor are willing to help, if you need surgery the Indians who don't have insurance and them who does. The help is there. If you go in the, on an emergency before twenty-four hours, you report to Jack Robertson in Oklahoma City, or Calvin Beams of Oklahoma City. Lot of people won't want handout. All you have to do is go, and the Lord will help you. Don't give up going to church, just keep on praying.

(Unidentified voice: About the petition how many signature did you have to get?)

No, they didn't say when, but ah --

(Unidentified voice: You said 500 was enough.)

No, ah, yeah that was enough. The Public Health or what is his name

Jack Albert, I mean you know. Carl Albert he said, that's who we talked to. He said that most Indian that we are gonna place they have Tahlequah Hospital, Talihina Hospital, and they have -- What the name of that place over there.

(Claremore, Lawton.)

(Someone speaks but you can't hear them.)

No, way back there on the other side of Oklahoma City.

(Anadarko.)

No, it's about 130 or so miles, maybe 128 miles. (Not clear) Indian Hospital. (Not clear) Indian Hospital. It cost the Indian about 60 dollars for ambulance service. That's a whole for them. In the Wewoka area that won't be too far for the Indian to travel. Even the Chickasaw Nation will be able to come here. It would help all the Indian if we had a hospital here in Wewoka. Carl Albert say he would have one built so that it would help all the Indians in areas. The Director of the Indian, what is his name?

(Hayington)
