

Um-hum. (Yes)

(How many teachers were there?)

I don't know. I was too little to think about no teachers.

(How long did you stay there?)

Bout four years.

(How long were you at the Catholic school?)

Two years I guess. My mother took me home, I got sick. I was so sick.

My mother said I got the word that my girl's sick. Rushed up there and got me, took me home.

(What were you sick with?)

Fever.

(After your illness did you return to school again before going to Muskogee?)

(Informant proceeds to tell of her life after leaving Muskogee.)

Uh-uh. (No)

PERIOD AS ASSISTANT MATRON AT RAINY MT. INDIAN BOARDING SCHOOL:

I got in employment service. After I came back from that school, they can't get me to go to school so they give me that job.

(What was your job?)

Assistant matron at Rainy Mountain. It's a boarding school.

(Were there any other assistant matrons?)

Uh-uh. Just a head matron.

(Who was she?)

Oh, big white lady.

(What was her name?)

Miss Ella Peyto.

(What were your duties as assistant matron?)
