(Freewill Baptist.)

Uh-huh, and, so, but my eyes got bad--can't walk, so I just quit.

(Well, you done your share. You taught fourteen years. You have to quit sometimes, after awhile.)

Unidentified voice: (not clear)

(So how many children did you all have now?)

Fourteen.

(And how many did you raise?)

Ten.

(And the others died when they were young?)

Mmm-hmm, when they was big only except three of them--two of them.

Unidentified voice: My son used to teach Sunday School.

(Did they died at child birth, Dolly, or childhood diseases or ---)

Yeah, child disease, you know, when they were just a year old--two of them did. And, others, they're grown. I just lost one a year ago. It'd be two year this year in July when he died.

(Oh, I'm sorry. Did (not clear) boy in the war or -- )

No, he just took sick. He had one of them old--what you call them old bad diseases what kill them quick?
