

T-572-1 (First of Four Interviews.)
JOSEPH ROGERS, DELAWARE
INTERVIEWED BY: J. W. TYNER
INTERVIEW DATE: APRIL 9, 1970
TRANSCRIBED BY: FLORA QUINATA
PROOFREAD BY: NONA KERR

GENERAL SUBJECT: DELAWARE INDIANS IN NORTHERN WASHINGTON COUNTY

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

BRIEF INTRODUCTION
EDUCATION IS LIMITED
TOM MIX WAS LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER
MUCH MORE ABOUT TOM MIX - INCIDENTS
HAD VISIONS THAT PROVED TRUE - TWO INCIDENTS
DALTON BROTHERS WERE FRIENDS
STORY OF PISTOL PETE - INCIDENTS
VISITS ROLLA GOODNIGHT
DELAWARE INDIANS ARE SCATTERED IN DIFFERENT PARTS OF OKLAHOMA
RESTRICTIONS REMOVED - CHEROKEE DELAWARES - CLAIMS
MORE ABOUT PROBLEMS CONCERNING DELAWARES
JOHN FALLEAF
PREPARING DRIED CORN
MORE ABOUT FOOD
MORE ABOUT TOM HAWKINS
DELAWARES STILL HAVE STOMP DANCES

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Joseph Rogers was seventy years of age at the time of this interview. He was born near Dewey, Oklahoma and still lives in that area. He attended the first school in Dewey. Tom Mix, western movie star, was an early day Marshal of Dewey and close friend of Mr. Rogers.

NOTE: The other interviews on this tape are: Nola Jones Egnor, Cherokee
Kenneth Oyler, Cayuga
Martha Redman, Delaware