

(Yeah.)

You go out there out there towards old Washington's place. It's on the north side of the road. There on the camp grounds.

(It's just on east of where Falleaf lives.)

Right east of where Fred Falleaf lives. There will be the school house along just---

(Yeah.)

The law brought one of them Falleaf girls out of the house. She wanted to go out there. And he--she couldn't get anyone to go. And he come down there and ask me if I'd take her out there. Well, I wasn't doing nothing so I just drove her out there. Sit out there and watch 'em dance awhile. I hadn't been to a stomp dance in quite a long time. I can't remember her name now. But she used to-- (static) --

(Yeah.)

(Sentence not clear.) And she had one of the prettiest white girls you've ever seen. Blonde headed girl. She was deep with God, see, in the pentecost. She walked out there and Joe Irons was sitting back there in the congregation. And said that girl spoke to him in the most peculiar language he ever heard. And he said, "Lord --- he didn't understand what it was. He said, "Lord -- (not clear)."

(Yeah.)

She said if you'll come down here I'll see the holy ghost right now. He said he never did go. She said when I pray for these people, and it will hit you a certain way, God heals---(static)--she was too---

(End of Interview.)
