

they said, was Leban Miles.)

JOHN HUNTER, JOHN AND GEORGE MILES AND OTHERS

Yeah.

(Did you know him?)

The old man? Yeah.

(Yeah.)

They boys both gone. John Miles and George Miles. They're related to this--oh--these people down here, Morrells. Related to John Hunter.

Raised there someplace.

(Related to John Hunter?)

Huh?

(You mean related to John Hunter.)

Yeah.

(Is that Aaron Hunter's father?)

Uh-huh. I think it was. They used to come from there. He lived right up there. He married Ed Penn's mother.

(Ed Penn.)

Ed Penn. Walker Penn. Do you know them?

(I remember Walker Penn.)

He married their mother. She was married before, you know. They lived by hotel, I think. She dressed in white, civilian clothes all the time. Talker. He was related to them Penns. Related to (Osage name) I believe it was. This was Ed Penn's father.

(They was related to this Miles, huh?)

Uh-huh. Miles wasn't related to Downs. Ed Penn's father was. He was related to these Downs. If you give me time, I can go way back yonder. I can remember way back there. Sometimes if I get in hurry I'll get /words not clear/.

(Forget then.)

FATHER WAS A DANCER - WHITE PEOPLE STEAL HOGS AND CATTLE