

(Bennett?)

Yeah. I knew one time, but I forgot. I got it on the end of my tongue.

BECOME A MEMBER OF METHODIST CHURCH

That tribe, you know, I got so well acquainted with 'em that one time we was playing ball Sunday morning, Easter Sunday. I was playing with bunch of boys in front of the chapel. And seen some of the boys coming, they come right where I was. They was trying to tell me about. They said, come go with us. Where are you going? We're going to church. They were going to church downtown on Sundays, you know. Go to church where you go to. I said, wait then I'll get my cap. So, went to get my coat and hat and went. I followed 'em down there. We got down there. We went to the Methodist church.

(Methodist, huh?)

Yeah. So, we got in there. I was following. I was last one. They go first you know. Just sitting there. /Not clear./ That minister, he said the--children place get way down in front. Show me where to sit. When they did I was last one, but when we got to the aisle, I was the first one.

(Going in like that.)

Yeah. So, pretty soon, I missed about half the sermon. He talked to the congregation. He told 'em what he was going to do. Got some boys we want to baptize. So, it's Easter Sunday morning. When I got baptize they pour water on my head. Told 'em all to pray, you know. He done 'em all that way. When he got through them boys down that way we was still running around with one them boys. He looked at me this way. Looked at me. Laughed at me.

/Words not clear/ baptizing them boys. /Laughter/

ACQUAINTED WITH MEMBERS OF OTHER TRIBES

Then I got a friend one Menominee Indian, too. I stayed with him
