

Alice: Forever--should be "forever."

(Things like that--I can go for that.)

And, I think, now is the time to do this. If I am representing you as chief, then, that is one of the things that I will certainly try to do. Now, the council is the governing power.

Alice: And they can out vote.

And they can out vote the chief, assistant chief and --

Alice: But the chief is the chairman unless he refuses.

But this is my aim. In other words, I don't have anything in my heart, or in my mind unless it's good for all the people. That means, all of them. I don't want to represent just one little group, you know, whenever I talk. You know this thing is got their place and I remember back way long years ago before I was wanting to represent my people, I talked to Mr. Luca one day. He always addressed me as WeShinKe. He called me son because he did adopt me and gave me this name that I use. That's not a fictitious name that I use because Mr. Ben Wheeler did give me that name and Mr. Luca honored him that day. And he gave him a lot of nice presents for doing that thing for him; and which I always appreciated. I really appreciate that name. To go on with this, he told me there, "If you're going to represent your people, then, you have to be a great big tall man because what they're going to do to you, they're going to punch you. They're going to dig you. They're going to say all these little things about you. And if you listen to what they say to you, then, you're just as little as they are. Then, I would never recommend you to represent your people because regardless of what the people says and anything
