

know sometimes I feel like that I want to write to Billy Graham and tell him he's go out of business some time. That's just a little after, but I'm glad I took that step because my children were saved, and the least of our children was saved just recently, and he is at the age of six, but she wanted to yield her life to the Lord and that she would be saved and be saved always because she understood what this is all about. And I was one of the happiest fathers that was in that crowd during this great crusade that we had here in Muskogee. My daughter gave her life to the Lord and since that time, why my life, my home life has been completed with Christianity. And now that since I have been called to pastor a church, I know that there are many who have been Christians as old as I am, but still that does not hinder me from getting up there and expounding the truth of God. And that I will be preaching from here on out, I guess. I guess this is about all that I have to say.

(Well, that was real interesting and I enjoyed listening to it. I guess back though in your young days like you said your father was a minister. You got your experience from there. You know, where the Indians lived in a community today, do they do a lot of visiting one another?)

Yes, in here. In this area where we lived out in the western part of Seminole county, there wasn't the Indians weren't very popular. They were more to the east of us, and when they did visit, the people back in them days, they used to come and stay for 2 or 3 or 4 days and maybe longer at a time. Of course, things are quite different now. I know that many they were cottage prayer meeting. I know, at one time, while we were having a cottage prayer meeting or one of the services in our home, and I remember as I child, I was very young at that time, I remember that I started to sing in our native tongue, which I started it, and everyone joined in. I remember that night you know that everybody rejoiced that night, but I don't think I was, I know the Lord was wanting to come into my life then, but somehow or another, I just left Him out or I might have been saved, but I don't think I was until I really had this true experience at being born again the second time just in recent years. But yes, they did have cottage prayer meetings, and
