

we was, I guess I was about eight or ten years old when she died. But she used to sit there and tell us. She said, "You all see something--I might be dead and gone--you all see something then the world's going to end, that you all never did see." And there's lots of airplanes. See they ain't got no breath. That's a human made. But my grandma used to say that. If Jerusalem and Isarel and back there have a war, she said, "That would end the world." (Yeah --.)

CARRYING WATER IN PAIL ON HEAD

Third voice: She spoke of hauling water in a wash pail. Did she ever pack two pails? One on top of her head and --

On the head?

Third voice: Three pails.

Um-hum. You can put a bucket of water on our head and then carry two. It's just as easy you could carry one.

(I don't think I can do that.) (Laughter)

And when we wash, we had to take our number three tub and put them wet clothes in there and one of them help lift that tub on your head and you bring it up that hill. Might near quarter of a mile to the house to hang it up.

SELDOM IN HOSPITAL

(Good night! Hum-m-m. Do you have a garden? You beat me.) (Laughter)

I always make garden. And I push that little plow too. They using tillers but I don't. Got one wheel--

(You must be strong. Here I'm just sickly all the time. You ever been in hospital?)

Uh-hum. I've been in hospital with pneumonia. I've been going for shots.

Going with--my son was here one day and --we had supper ready and I said,

"Let me go draw fresh bucket of water." I went out there and I got so blind that I had to sit on the curb of that well till I could see. And I was bringing the water and I come to that step and I just couldn't see and I just sit >
