

just us. We could save the three dollars.

Henderson: This is what--a dollar charge on each bill?

Irene: just on the electric and water. And then the gas is the same way.

If they turn the gas off, you have to pay two dollars, I think.

Jordan: Yeah.

Irene: And then if it's electric and water, it's three dollars.

Jordan: But in Normah sometimes I will let my bills go for a month, and you can just barely let them go a month--

Irene: They won't let you. They just let you go four days or three days. And then if you don't pay it, they cut everything off.

Roberta: They're really clamping down on you everywhere, even in Apache.

Jordan: Do you all have some more questions or something to talk about? I thought I might go out and get lunch?

Davis: Did you say Elton has applied for this Mutual Help Housing?

Irene: Yeah. He got it but no place to put it. But his mother is willing to deed him whatever he needs.

Davis: Then he's in the same boat with these other boys. He's approved but he doesn't have the land.

Irene: Yeah. But his mother is willing to deed him land. I think his mother should go in there and deed him that land. That way he could build. But the places she has is all undivided land. It's kinda hard that way. Just like you, isn't it (to Roberta)?

Jordan: You have to get the approval of all the heirs?

STORY ABOUT DIVISION OF OLD MAN ACHILTA'S LAND ILLUSTRATING ARBITRAINESS OF B.I.A. DECISIONS

Irene: Yeah. The Agency has to go out there and approve it. And this is the way the Agency works, too. Like, for instance, over here at this Houston Klinkole's, where this little corner it--well, they had a hearing a long time