

Yeah, he was. He was 96 years when he died.

(Well)

He was buried in that grave over there.

(Well, I guess he was a grand old man, too.)

Yeah, (sentence not clear)

(Yeah)

LIFE DURING EARLY DAYS

(Interruption -- Laughter)

(Ah-huh. Easy!)

Easy, you bet you.

(Well, they had the way of making the living easy.)

Well, I remember, dad was always a farmer. He shared out here six years.

And I don't know how many years he was sick.

(Ah-huh)

Several years.

(Yeah)

And they got all those recorded.

(Yeah)

"Scrippet", Government "Scrippets" Cherokee nation got paid them.

(Yeah!)

Then he was judge right there in that district for several years. Then he had a little farm out there. Planted corn.

(Interruption.)

(Yeah, hog and cows mostly went wild those days.)

Yeah, outside range and they couldn't anyone come within a quarter of that range.

(Ah-huh)
