

(And something did that too?)

Huh?

(Yeah, they...)

And it went all over my clothes, you know. I was trying to get out, you know. I was uncomfortable on account of that stuff coming out.

And my mother says, "No, son, you better stay till the, it's almost daybreak, she says, so I stayed. But that's how I got well. I still got that scar someplace. Uh-huh, because I, but anyway, I got well by the Indian way, see. Doctors couldn't do anything that way. That was when I was still going to school. But you tell it like that among Indian. You know them.

(Yeah)

Yeah, see, I got lots of things I can tell them, but they won't believe me. But that's anyway, that's one thing happened to me when I got cured that way. Well, otherwise, I couldn't get no where's but I got help....
