

Get down there, cat. Yeah, they played it a year as they done that.

In the earlier year, you couldn't get a Indian to get there.

(Oh, they want to...)

Only thing he'd do is harness up his horses, and feed his horses.

Yeah, get him out there, and he likes a ride. Lots of them at the end of them contest, racing and such as that. He wasn't going to put out no work.

TEXAS CATTLEMEN

(When did these, when did these cattlemen come in from down Texas.

Do you remember anything about them coming in putting their herds here and take them on down to Kansas City?)

Who?

(These Texas cattlemen.)

Cattlemen, oh. Yeah, they come in here. They had to ship them in those days. You see, I was, I come in here later in the herd drives.

(Oh.)

You see, the herd drive all quit when I come in here. And they shipped them in here train loads, you see? They used to unload them up here at Wynona. And that's the best unloading place they had down here.

(Sentence not clear.)

Right in the middle of the county too, I guess. (Not clear) stock yards here, too.

(About in the middle of the county, too, I guess, wasn't it?)

Mmm?

(About in the middle of the county, Wynona was, you know.)

Yeah, yeah, yeah.

(Go out both ways, you know.)

Used to be so many dead cattle up there lying on that stock yard
