

T-614-5.(Fifth of Five Interviews)
MAGGIE ROSS, CHEROKEE
INTERVIEWED BY: J.W. TYNER
INTERVIEW DATE: MAY 22, 1970
TRANSCRIBED BY: VICKI DAVIS
TRANSCRIPTION CHECKED BY: MARY HOMER WIKA

GENERAL SUBJECT: SOME HISTORY OF SALINE CREEK COUNTRY, IT'S PEOPLE
AND THEIR PROBLEMS: SCHOOLS, FOODS, AND MEDICINE
CHURCHES AND CEMETERIES

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

INTRODUCTION
FAMILY
REMINISCES ABOUT PEOPLE IN COMMUNITY
EDUCATION - SCHOOL INCIDENTS
PRINCIPAL AND SUPERINTENDENT RESIGN

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Maggie Ross, age 65, is a lifelong resident of Salina in Mayes County, Oklahoma. She was born and raised in this area and knows the people and happenings well. She is the daughter of Henry Thompson and Sarah Lacie Thompson. She attended Wyandotte school through sixth grade since that was the highest grade taught there at that time.

Note: The other interviews on this tape are: Bryan Sunday, Cherokee
Lucinda Whilhite, Cherokee
Andrew Thompson, Cherokee
Mazie Pettie Roper, Cherokee