

(Do you know Billy High?)

Yeah, he's my son.

(Dr. Bittle wanted me to ask you about that.)

He's my son. He's my oldest son.

(How old is he?)

Oh, he must be about 50, he was born in 1912.

(Do you have any sisters?)

I had one sister but she passes away. Her name was Mabel High. She passed away in 1935 I think.

(How was...how old was she?)

Oh she must of been about 30 I guess.

(Was she older than you?)

I'm older than her.

(Did your parents....did your mother receive an allotment?)

Yes, she's got an allotment but my daddy's ain't got no allotment.

(Where is she, your mother's allotment?)

Ft. Cobb.

(How far from Ft. Cobb is it?)

You know where that Apache Church, it's pass that first bridge about a mile from there.

(The Apache Baptist Church?)

Yeah

(Out by Nestell's?)

No, further west.

(Yeah, but it's on the same road....Indian road?)

Um-hum. That's the same road going west.

(What type of work did your mother do? Did she farm any on her allotment?)

No, she didn't farm nothing. They just had a little garden that's all they had.

((NEXT PART NOT VERY CLEAR))

(What kind of crops do you have?)
