

Oh, I don't hardly get sick. I don't even take aspirin now. I'm scared of aspirin. I don't even take no kinds of medicine now. I hope I don't use no kind of medicine. (Why not?)

Well, I just don't want to. Ah...some peoples just use lots of aspirin but I don't. I'm afraid of it.

(What would it do?)

It dopes you up. You don't know what your doing.

BIRTH

(Where were your children born? Were they born in a hospital?)

At home.

(At home?)

Uh-huh.

(In the house?)

Yeah, in the house.

(Who attended you while you were having your babies?)

We had Indian womens but they all pass away now. Most of them goes to hospital now.

(How many women helped you?)

Oh, I had about three. I didn't hardly go to doctors.

(Was one of them in charge or a leader?)

No, they were all the same.

(What kind of jobs did they do?)

Oh, they didn't do any kind of jobs.

(Well, did each one have a different duty when they took care of you?)

No, they all....

(How long did you stay in bed after you had a baby?)

Oh bout ten days. We didn't get up quick.

(When did they first come up to help you?)

Oh, my step-father went after them in the wagon. We didn't have no cars then.
