

(Was she older than you or younger than you?)

Older than I. But she didn't know nothing. She didn't even know how to thread a needle or anything. She was just helpless.

(Was she that way all her life?)

All her life.

(This is sort of off the subject, but was there any way of doctoring people like that among the Arapahoes?)

No. They didn't know. There was quite a few like that, that didn't know very much. And they just lived that way until they died.

(These children here--John--I mean, Howard and the brother, and Esther, and Cross Eyes--which is the oldest?)

Esther is the oldest and then this other one--this one--and then him (Howard) and she (Cross Eyes) was the baby. Funny baby!

MORE HUSBAND'S RELATIVES

(Now did Circle have any other children besides these?)

Just the four.

(And what about Bird's Head--did he have any others? I was wondering if your husband had any half-brothers or sisters.)

Yeah, he had half-brothers--but I don't know their mothers. I wasn't that old to know who they were, but he had half-brothers.

(Did they have the same father or the same mother?)

Same father, but different mothers.

(Do you know who were his half-brothers?)

Let's see--Henry Lincoln. And Dick Bird's Head.

(Were Henry and Dick--were they full brothers?)

No. They were half-brothers, too. This old man, I guess he had three wives, but I don't know them. I don't know their names.
