

Alonzo. Charlene Sutton, you're asked to come and shake hands with Alonzo. Bernice Franklin. Pearl Sleeper. Virgil, bring her over water over here-- I gotta have some of that. Now gentlemen, if your wife is not here you must get up and come over and get the gifts. We got to keep moving.

Next number is a special for Henry Bates. (Pause) Harold Cedartree, since he's been joined the Starhawks, he wants to give some money, and we're asking the Starhawks to come and shake hands. Twenty dollars. Also for Max Seely. Now there were two other men that were chosen for the Starhawks, also--Patrick Spotted Wolf and Harold Cedartree, which I did not mention. (Pause) Janie Washee wants to express thoughts that she was not in position to do much--as we all know what occurred not too long ago. And that cannot be helped. But she's making introduction of Patrick Spotted Wolf, a nephew. Mrs. Martin Armour took all the responsibility when one of the boys dance at Wyoming--went through the ceremony. And she just don't know what to do and how to do it, to thank her. Words cannot express the thanks that they extend to her. We are asking her, Mrs. Martin Armour to come and shake hands with Patrick Spotted Wolf, and her daughter, Mary Barnes.

Washee: All right, the special for Henry Bates at this time. Remember Henry Bates is a gourd clan member. (Song begins) Due to the time factor this afternoon--we've got to run off the straight dance contest a little on down. We've got quite a few specials here, and we'd like to combine maybe two together. You all dance together--on one side and the other side, and we'll explain each side. But we'd like to combine two specials together. After this special right here, we'd like these number (Ladies cloth dress) to get ready. (Reads six numbers, to finish contest.) Ladies, if you have these numbers, get prepared. Judges, get ready. (Four Gourd dance songs are sung.) Now let's make correction according to the program--they claim it's a special
