

the False Face may run and catch anybody. This is usually done with girls, and they are supposed to give a present before they are released. Otherwise, in the old days, they could be kept prisoner. Of course, this will not be carried out in the term today.

(Indian music is heard for a short period.)

(In listening to the replay of this, I note that I did not include the use of the tobacco. Each person who was doctored received a little piece of tobacco--twist tobacco they told me, or I think the reason the Indian tobacco wasn't used, they just simply didn't have enough of it here. But before they went in to the circle to be doctored, they put the tobacco in the fire.

(The remainder of this tape is Language Class and was not transcribed.)