

she'd wake me up and say get up, get up, I'm already up and set table or do this for me. You not no man to stay in bed.

(Now at the boarding school did you wear uniforms?)

We all had the same color, material of dresses, we got uniforms to go to Sunday school on. They issue out shoes and dresses for us.

And that time we wore ribbons on our, and we all had to wear like Company C and B like that each one of us had to have different colors of uniforms to wear to go to Sunday school. And weekdays we have certain clothes. They make them up there themselves, and then we have to wear them or the big girls makes them and then we have to wear them. The same way with the boys, they have uniforms to wear.

(Were the boys and girls always kept separated?)

Yea, stay separated. They boys, they can't come on the girls side and the girls they can't go on the boys side, and linen taking linens to the boys building the boys comes after it themselves and takes it over there and they know where they go. Sheets, everything was furnished in them days. Even furnish us hose, shoes, everything.

(Did you like the uniforms?)

Yea, I like them. I wished I had some of them old pictures that you could see. You could see what kind they are.

(Do you remember any of the subjects taught in the classes that you took?)

No.

(Do you remember any of your teachers and if so why?)

Just know two that I really know for sure, ah, and been well acquainted. And we call her, that was our sixth grade teacher. The
