

putting their bells around her ankles when they danced. I never did remember that.

(They don't do that now, do they?)

Mary: Well there are some. Some Shawnees do.

(Do they?)

Mary: Oh yes. There are some Shawnees do that.

(Well, Pauline was just talking about these shells, that she didn't want to loan them to anybody because they were doctored. And I wondered about it.

Maybe-(tape is inaudible for about two sentences while Mary and Fannie are talking.). I guess we will just have to talk to her about it won't we.) (laughs)

(End of interview)