

(Pause) Helen Brady. Calling Helen Brady. Come in, Helen Brady. Helen Brady--(speaks in Cheyenne) (Pause) Calling Verna Yellowcloud. Lady in the green dress, Mrs. Left Hand wants you to come and get a gift from her, honoring a relative here being the head dancer tonight. There's lot of head dancers, but this is the one that's got the best jewelry on!

(People laugh) Calling you, Kate Osage, to come and receive a gift from the Garcia family. (Jess says M. C. joke with each other, especially when they're brothers-in-law.) Those that are sponsoring this shindig here tonight--this doings--I mean, this benefit--the C & A Gourd Dancers--come and receive your money here. The Garcia family want to thank all you who helped tonight.

Clinton: The program is not as lively as it has been in the past. It seems to be a little gayness gone--It's all because of David Fanman. He cut up his wife's best serape and made a vest out of it. (Referring to David's bright vest) That's the reason they're kinda having hard feelings about it--best serape she bought in Mexico and David cut it up and made a vest out of it! (Everyone laughs) I guess things will be better next dance or so. (Jess says David Fanman and Clinton Youngbear are brothers-in-law. Clinton married a Cheyenne girl who is Fanman's cousin or "sister"--Blossom.)

Clinton: O. K., at this time next on the program, we have a couple from Montana and we, the Cheyennes and Arapahoes from the southern states, like to show our hospitality and generosity towards these tribes. Mr. and Mrs. Reading (?) are leaving for Montana Saturday morning. Mrs. Reading is having trouble with her eyesight. Otherwise, she had intended to stay with us till Thanksgiving. But due to this, it is only fitting that we
