

show our generosity and hospitality towards these folks. So we're going to spread a blanket for these folks and whatever you can give them will help defray the transportation costs towards home. O. K., we're asking you to put it in the pan that we have on the floor south of the drummer. It's a C & A "Pan Dance", instead of Blanket Dance! Whatever you can donate --a nickel or dime--anything to help these people. Some day you may be up north, and these people...are well known--North and South Dakota, Montana, Wyoming, Canada--they are officers at various pow-wows in northern states. Whatever you can contribute, you will be recognized whenever you are in their country. Your contributions will be appreciated deeply. (War dance song sung. During this dance people who wish to contribute dance and drop money in the pan set south of the drummers.)

Clinton: O. K., drummers, at this time we're going to ask the drummers to sing a few two-step songs. We're going to ask the hosting group--to be the leaders of the Indian two-step. Gonna ask the Gourd Dancers to take the lead and choose your own partners, leading the Indian Two-Step. Ask the chairman to take the lead and then the Vice-chairman, secretary and treasurer. Show us you can do other things besides gourd dance. All members of the Gourd Dancers, we're asking you to choose your partners. It's hosting...veterans' celebration. Anybody take part. All you gourd dancers, choose your partners. Frank Hamilton--Jess Rowledge--(calls out other names of Gourd Dancers) Walter Hamilton, Clarence Stoner--(Two-Step songs sung. Joe Neeley asked two women to dance and they've refused.)

Clinton: Joe Neeley, you're (wife) is out in the truck!

(Some people cut up and clown during the two-step. One couple does a kind
