

dollars (to C & A)...Wilson Brady. (Pause) Lujan--Taos, Pueblo. The Crow lady--Crow woman. (Pause) The grandpa here says he ain't got nothing to brag about, but he's very thankful for the family he has today. Aho (Probably gets money). (Pause) Now here's a young man that his mother has requested a special for this young man. And I'm real proud of this guy here--Lyford Fisher, Jr. He's a veteran of Viet Nam War, has two Purple Hearts, and other citations. Recently awarded the Silver Star, also Oak Leaf and two Bronze Stars. He is presently working at the Oklahoma General Hospital at Clinton. He recently graduated from the Southwestern in the medical school and he is now assistant foreman at the Oklahoma General. There's another boy here, Bobby Fisher, is to return home any time now. Also he's coming home from Viet Nam and will be here any day now. And the mother is pretty proud of these boys. At this time she wants a special song for these two boys. (Pause)--I guess I'm to sing a song. (Mrs. Fisher probably asked Roy to lead a song.)

(Song begins)

Clinton: This young boy is a graduate Pharmacist. He graduated a week ago Monday. He has to serve 3 years internship in Washington, D. C. And this young lady with the black and red shawl is his daughter. We're inviting you to stay with us for the evening meal--also the evening program to continue immediately after the evening meal. That is the "Lease Man" song they're singing...(a joke). You can say "No, Mr. Lease Man, but wait till January 1!" (Jess says this refers to Agent from Concho. Probably Paul Vance, the Agent, is now present.) (Song ends. Clinton continues.) Incidentally, I stated that that was the Lease Man Song--but the Agency is coming out with new lease papers. They have the change to where after
