

Eleven. All of them's living. We ain't lost one. Yeah, they all live around here--but one's in Texas.

(What are their names?)

There's one girl--the oldest one--lives in this trailer house. That's Viola Hatch. Then the other one living over there is Cora (Scabby Horse). And there's Patricia Ann, Nancy, and Charlene, Wilda, Ada--there's so many I can't call all their names at one time--they're all scattered--I just can't think of their names. There's two boys--William Ray and Allen.

William lives in town. He married a white girl.

(Some irrelevant conversation and end of tape.)
