Who is the first one you said?

MR. O'BRYAM:

Howard O'Bryan.

THE COURT:

Oh. yes.

Well, you have your work cut out, Hr. Kamins, if you want to begin, or I can announce to you what I feel or you can begin from there. Now, this is the case -

MR. KAMINS:

I would like to hear your feelings.

THE COURT:

I'll tell you

my feelings very simply.

This is a case where you petitioned this court for a three judge court. The court called a three judge courts on a constitutional question and we didn't feel it involved a constitutional question to justify the three judge court and it was sent back, then, and I took the case and dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. You appealed to the Tenth Circuit. The Tenth Circuit sent it back and said, "If you amended you might want to file again," and so you have refiled under a different provision.

How you are coming into this court with the $10,000 requirement for value, among other things, is this true?

MR. KAMINS:

As an added

jurisdictional requirement. Not in lieu of, but in addition to. 借·
