

(Oh.)

Well, it's not hard.

(Yeah.)

You see, I was going to try that one time at the fair, the Shinny Game.

(Yeah.)

But I can't get enough boys, you know---

(Yeah.)

We need--well, you can use ten, but I rather use, maybe, thirty, you know.

(Yeah.)

Got thirty boys, you know.

(Yeah.)

They use stick, but some of them make a mistake, you know---

(Yeah.)

Well, just like when they play football, sometimes you get mad, you know.

Somebody might hit somebody with that stick.

(Yeah.)

Get these Creeks, they can't get mad, you know. It's their game. Maybe, they do get mad, you know.

(Yeah.)

I was going to try that one time. Same way with this--well, field don't have to be too long; but then this shinny game, it, you know, it's got to be a long field.

(Yeah.)

Maybe, big as a football field.

(Yeah.)

Nowadays, they just don't need that long.

(Mmm-hmm.)
