

Unidentified voice: When was the time you saw (not clear)

(When was the last time you saw that game played?)

It's been long (not clear), long time ago. It's when they used to have that grass house down in country. There was grass house then.

(Yeah.)

I saw that game in that shinny game. Well, I played too.

(Yeah. Well, how about that woman's game?)

Well, that woman's, they played little. It didn't last long.

(Yeah.)

All give out.

(Yeah.)

They--they had lot of people not strong, you know.

(Mmmm-hmmm.)

Old people, you know, they slow get around, you know.

(Yeah.)

Them women, they--when they fall, they can get up. (Laughter)

Unidentified voice: Are the sticks straight or are they---?

That's about all in that game, you know.

SHAPE OF STICKS USED

(Yeah. Joe, how--how much of a curve is there on the stick in a woman's game? How curved is it? Is it like a shinny stick or is more curved or---?)

Oh, it's like, you know, bend like that, you--it's about that long.

(Yeah.)

They don't make them too long.

(Yeah.)

They--they--they got to try to get it all even, you know.

(Yeah.)
