

Mr. Wheeler: Well, me and him same age.

(Yeah.)

~~Mr. Wheeler: We was born on the twenty-second of July.~~

(Uh.)

Mr. Wheeler: Yeah.

(Ethel told me it was twenty-first.)

Mr. Wheeler: Huh?

(Ethel told me she thought it was the twenty-first.)

Mr. Wheeler: No, it's twenty-second. So, I told the draft--oh, I guess,

I could have told them, "They didn't have no record at the agency." They didn't have no record. Only thing they had was I was born 1902.

(Yeah.)

Mr. Wheeler: Maybe, I was born before that. I don't know. (laughter)

Government might be cheating me. (laughter) Yes, so, they're going to do that, Wichitas.

(Yeah.)

~~Mr. Wheeler: I don't know. I reckon we're supposed to have that meeting on the third, third of August.~~

(Yeah.)

Mr. Wheeler: And I want to go over here.

(Yeah.)

Mr. Wheeler: Red Barn.

(Yeah.)

Mr. Wheeler: I think that's where they're going to have it too.

(Yeah, second, third, and fourth.)

Mr. Wheeler: Yeah.

(You're going to camp out there?)
