

side, he'll get up and go you know, give it to the person that asked for it. You don't get up, they wait on you those two. That's why I say they're just like ushers.

(Do they take peyote too?)

Yes. All the ones that participate in there. Maybe some of them just drink might say just a half cup of that tea. They don't take it to get intoxicated.

TEA AND CURING:

(Do the Caddo make that tea and use for medicine?)

Yes. Very, very good for pneumonia.

(How do the Caddo make it?)

Well, they simmer it and they use the mortar to pound that in and then take it in. Of course, they roll it up little balls and then...that's how they take that after its been pounded.

(What to make tea?)

Well, when they make the tea, and they strain it. They strain it and put it in a container and then its taken in . But they wash it and they take and they pound it in these mortars that they have and they pound it and put it in a pan or what have you and take it in there and those that wish to take that, do , but most of them just rather take the tea.

(Is the tea stronger?)

Yes, it is awful strong. I've smelled it.

(Are there any stories about people being cured in a meeting?)

Oh, I know of several. As I say, it's very good for pneumonia. Especially if it's near the crisis, they use it. Very good for a cold. All you got to do is drink a little, but they're greatly restricted from salt. They
