

The other time you all just drop out--just come out. But this time I'm gonna catch him." He said, "This time I'm gonna kill it. Every time one come out I'm gonna catch it and choke it! About this time he strained, it come out. It was all his bowels that came out! He put his hands in his bowels! "Hein!" he said. And that's the kind of story he (Able) told, that last one. Sainday said, "I didn't know that rabbit was smarter than I am!"

3. (Another segment of T-71 is played)

THIRD SEGMENT: SAINDAY CHANGES HIS EYES INTO WEEDS AND GOES BLIND; LATER HE SEES AN ANIMAL FISHING WITH ITS TAIL THROUGH A HOLE IN THE ICE AND LEARNS TO DO IT, TOO; THEN HE MEETS AN OLD LADY AND EATS TOO MUCH OF HER FOOD AND HAS TO PASS A LOT OF GAS.

He said Sainday was always moseying along. He was walking along the creek there. Saindy said, "Well, I always change myself to anything all the time." This time he was walking along the creek and he seen these pretty weeds, you know. Pretty, you know. Just like these different eyes, you know. Different colors. They change, you know. He said, "I believe I'll change my eyes to one of them." So he went blind. So he was just falling around in that creek and feel his way around. Pretty soon he said, "Ah, I don't like to be like this. I want my own eyes back." So he got them back, you know. So he went along. And when he was going he came to ice, nothing but ice. It was frozen over. And he seen something coming way down there. Every now and then, whatever it was, it had a hole in that ice. It would stick its tail down there and bring up something to eat. So he said, "Well, when I meet him, I'm going to ask him," he said. "I'm want to do the same thing." So when he met him, he said, "Hey, what you doing?" He said, "Ah, I'm just eating. That's the way I always eat." He said, "Can you show
