

girl will think you pretty. Pretty enough she's gonna go with you and maybe you steal her..rode off with her.. Oh such things like that..

Sundance. Well then they move on again..another location and keep on going until they come to the fourth camp. Then the talker or whoever it is he gets on horseback and in the morning he says, "Hey, everybody stay at the camp. Nobody go anywhere. Everybody stay at the camp."

So everybody stay at the camp. And pretty soon this talker on horseback..maybe old man..he start to talk. He go around the camp, coming outside the camp. He talking. He telling what they're going to do.

So he go round and round. And when he finish up all right, then they quit. Now if you want to go hunting, hunting meat, buffalo, he does so. That's the customary way. That's the way they been doing the Sundance starting. All right, then the bunch they already locate the place where they going to camp. Good location and good timber..cotton wood timber..young one and straight and good forked poles everything.

They done locate it. All right. Then they move to the fourth camp.

They stop and pretty soon when they stop..well I'm going on.

Mrs. H.: Oh, O.K. I just wondered why you stopped. I thought maybe you were finished.

Mr. G.: Well I was going on.

Mrs. H.: Ok. All right.

Mr. G.: If it's broken down.

Mrs. H.: Yeah, he's got a tape recorder, grandpa. As you're talking he is taking your tape.

Mr. G.: So you see, they stop. The last run they're going to make they stop. That's the time they're going to run. All the company of that different..what you call a lodge..like Blackfoot and Omaha, and oh,
