

I think we had funeral for her yesterday, but we had to got this other way.

(Yeah.)

Ethel cooked some dinner.

(Yeah.)

And that woman, you know, she's part Wichita.

(Grace?)

Grace,

(Yeah.)

Her father was Wichita. They all way down, wait now, I'm going to--before we start on them games---

(Yeah.)

TRIBAL MEETING TO DISCUSS DEDICATION OF A SHIP IN BOSTON

--we got something among our tribe. I don't know. I haven't got the real--real detail of it, you know. Just people, you know, I been hearing, been telling me.

(Yeah.)

You know, they, I think it's the tribal council putting it on. Tribal council, you know, they, I think it's on the third. They say they moved it up, you know.

(Yeah.)

They're supposed to have it this coming Saturday, Saturday, but they moved it up. But I can't, you know, get it until we have a meeting, you know. She was going to have a meeting on that day.

(Yeah.)

Talking about getting delegation to go to Boston.

(What are they going to do?)
